About WAFFS

The Western Australian Ferret & Ferreting Society is the oldest and largest ferret welfare organisation in Australia. Founded in 1981, our club has members in all states of Australia as well as overseas. Our main reason for being is to provide education and assistance to our members and the general public on the health and welfare of ferrets.

A wide range of services is available to our members, so become a member today!

If you require any further details about our Society, please phone 1300 133 323, or see our web site www.waffs.org.au
